

Kathryn D. Kirmayer

Senior Vice President – Law and General Counsel

Beginning her work with the Association of American Railroads (AAR) in January 2015 as general counsel, Kathryn D. Kirmayer now serves as senior vice president, law and general counsel for the world's leading railroad policy, research and standard setting organization for the Class I freight railroads of the United States, Canada and Mexico, as well as Amtrak.

Prior to joining AAR, Kirmayer practiced with an AmLaw 100 law firm for twenty-five years. Her practice focused on complex business litigation and arbitration, with specific expertise in antitrust, contract and business torts. During her tenure, she also served as chair of the firm's litigation group and as vice-chair of the firm's Finance Committee.

Education

Ms. Kirmayer received a Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from Washington & Lee University School of Law, where she was an editor on the Law Review and elected to the Order of the Coif. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from Williams College. She is an active member of the D.C. Bar.

Personal

Ms. Kirmayer was a four-year All American swimmer and currently lives in Maryland with her husband and two children.

Association of American Railroads

America's freight railroads operate the safest, most efficient, cost-effective and environmentally sound freight transportation system in the world — and the Association of American Railroads (AAR) is committed to keeping it that way. AAR is the world's leading railroad policy, research and technology organization focusing on the safety and productivity of rail carriers. AAR members include the major freight railroads of the U.S., Canada and Mexico, as well as Amtrak.
